To Whom It May Concern:

At the beginning of October we began an experiment with an off site adoption group called Pawmatch. During the month we have had the opportunity to get to know the staff, and watch them work. They have been caring, helpful and thorough in their desire to help the animals and make this partnership work. So far every thing is working out wonderful. The new pet owners have been prompt in returning required paperwork. Our animals have enjoyed their out time. Our adoption rate has gone up which makes the euthanasia rate go down. Pawmatch takes the time to match the animals with the "right" home.

Sincerely,

Betty Wade
